

GUADALUPE SALGADO

Guadalupe Salgado is a visual artist based in Oaxaca, Mexico. She studied Fine and Visual Arts, specializing in Painting, at the Benito Juárez Autonomous University of Oaxaca.

In 2014–2015, she was awarded the prestigious National Fund for Culture and the Arts (FONCA) Young Creators Fellowship in the Photography category. Salgado has participated in several notable exhibitions and platforms, including the Encuentro Nacional de Arte Joven in Aguascalientes (2015–2022) and the 3rd Encuentro de Artes Plásticas de Tabasco (2016).

Her artistic practice has been further developed through residencies at No Lugar in Quito, Ecuador (2016); Residencia Art Project in Playa del Carmen, Mexico (2021); Atelier Mondial in France and Switzerland (2023); and La Residencia Belmond in Mallorca, Spain (2024). Her work has been exhibited internationally in Mexico, New York, Paris, Basel, Quito, Berlin, Milan, Mallorca, and Hong Kong.

Salgado is currently the founder and director of Estudio Abierto, an independent residency and research platform dedicated to contemporary art production and critical exchange in Oaxaca.
