ALEJANDRO MONGE

Alejandro Monge (Zaragoza, 1988) trained as a sculptor and is a self-taught painter. He began his artistic career at the School of Arts in his hometown, where his work quickly gained recognition. Soon after, he started exhibiting in national museums, foundations, and art galleries, receiving his first institutional awards and distinctions.

His work has been presented in venues such as the Camón Aznar Museum in Zaragoza—the official Goya museum—where he received an award from the Delegation of the Spanish Government, and Casa de Vacas in Madrid's Retiro Park, where he was granted an Honourable Mention at the BMW Art Awards, among other recognitions.

His work has been featured at major international art fairs, including Art Miami, KIAF Seoul, West Bund Art & Design Shanghai, Art Taipei, Cologne Art Fair, Design Days Dubai, and Estampa Art Fair, where it has garnered significant critical and commercial success.
